RIFLES: M1 Garand, 1903 Springfield or other US Military Rifles - CMP Rule 6.3.2-6.3.5, "As-issued" U.S. Military Rifles – Includes US Model 1903 Springfield rifle series, US Model 1917 rifle, US M1 Garand rifle, M1941 Johnson rifle, US Krag Rifle, or US M1 .30 cal. Carbine. The rifle must be in as-issued condition with standard stock, leather or web sling. Competitors firing bedded M1 Garand Rifles or M1's with National Match parts (NM) shall fire in the "Unlimited Garand" category.

As-Issued Foreign Military Rifles - CMP Rule 6.3.6 "As-Issued Foreign Military Rifle" - The rifle must be a rifle that was issued by the Armed Forces of a country other than the U.S. and be in as-issued condition. All as-issued foreign military rifles must be manually operated bolt-action or straight-pull rifles. Semi-automatic or fully automatic rifles are not permitted.

Modern Military Rifles – This category is for modern military style rifles (not listed above), such as the AR-15, M4 Carbine, M1A, M14, etc. Competitors firing rifles in this category will not be eligible for the match winner plaque (July 6 Club Championship), however, they will be eligible for achievement pins firing qualifying scores in accordance with Pin Awards schedule listed below. The "Unlimited Modern Military" is for current AR's with scopes (no more than 4.5 power). Finally, we allow competitors to use other modern sporting or hunting rifles (i.e. scoped rifles) in this category if they don't own or have access to the above listed military rifles.

AMMUNITION ENTRIES: Rifles must be chambered in their original designed caliber/cartridge case.
Entries may be made in advance by mail at the above address or at the stat office at 8:00am the day of the match.
ENTRY FEES: $10.00 - Entries limited to 48 individuals.
TARGET DETAIL: Competitors will be divided into three relays – one firing, one scoring, and one pulling targets. Shooters will fire all stages of the match before rotating.
STARGING TIME: Registration time 8:00am. Firing will start at 9:00AM
COURSE OF FIRE: All firing is at 200 yards on the SR target as follows:
Sighters – 5 shots from any position included in the Stage 1 firing time.
Stage 1 – 10 shots slow fire from the prone position in 15 minutes.
Stage 2 – 10 shots rapid from standing to prone position in 80 seconds.
Stage 3 – 10 shots slow fire from the standing position in 10 minutes.
